THE CASTRO VALLEY HIGH SCHOOL

Olympian

Meet your candidates!

March 17 & 18, 2020

Class of 2023 Candidates

President

Ezra Tramble

"I have been in leadership for 3 years already."

Vice President

Jaylene Cole

"My goal is to use the feedback of my peers to give them the best experience possible. I will do so by asking for their input."

Treasurer

Jennifer Mi

"Not only am I hardworking and determined, but I strive to go above and beyond what is expected of me to serve Castro Valley High School with everything I have to offer."

Secretary

Amaya Minor

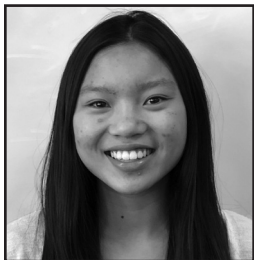

"Students should vote me because I'm a loud, confident, fearless leader. I'm always willing to speak up when I need to. I love to try new things and create an atmosphere where everyone can have fun and enjoy themselves."

Class of 2022 Candidates

President

Jamie Fong

"I think a goal that I have is to make sure that the people in our class have their voice heard and their opinions are taken into account."

Vice President

Honna Nguyen

"My goals for the following school year are to throw an epic prom, make more lunchtime activities/tournaments, and hold more fundraisers that students are actually eager to come to."

Treasurer

Emma Fogle

"I know what to expect. I was the Fundraising Commissioner so I did similar tasks to the treasurer."

Secretary

Amanda Wong

"I've been in leadership so I already know how things work. I also have been put in leadership roles before so I am familiar with planning events and getting things done."

Class of 2021 Candidates

President Miguel Bernas

"I want to make our last year at CVHS a memorable one. That means more senior class activities and getting more input from our students."

Vice President

Kayla Pereira

"I have both perspectives of being in and out of [leadership], therefore, I know what people want and how I can make it happen."

Kiara Primes

"People should vote for me because I genuinely care about people and their ideas. Almost everything I do can be related back to that idea."

Secretary

Adrienne Yen

"I'm consistent, organized, and I like to stay on top of things."

Alie Li

"I think this is a good opportunity to bring the school together as a community."

Treasurer

Kadie Qi

"I have experience with leadership because I'm part of a student run organization."

Alex Tam

"I will consider students' opinions and keep them in mind when making decisions that will affect them and involve them."

ASB President

Nadine Ratinho

"I am so passionate about student activities and being ASB president means everything to me."

Alex Ikuma

"I truly respect my competition. I do believe that I have a special determination and drive to improve our school that is unique to me."

ASB Vice President

Lauren Green

"I am capable and well prepared to balance anything and everything that comes my way."

Travis Orem

"I have been in leadership for two years now, both as class vice president. I have a lot of ideas and energy I can bring to the class."

ASB Secretary

Wandii Muinde

"I want to make sure we as a student body can come together to fundraise efficiently in order for most dreams in this school to come true."

Cassie Vaughn

"For the following school year, one of my main goals is to bring another water station to the school where students can fill up their water bottles."

ASB Treasurer

Griffin Hastings

"[My goals are] to take away the financial stress off the school and be able to know I am helping everyone, not just staff but students too."

Jake Zakas

"I want to give the student body more of a voice in what goes on in school activities like homecoming, dances, and other events that students participate in."

ASB School Board Representative

Shane Tayag

"In this position I will commit myself to working hard with the Castro Valley school community to ensure of a safe, fun, and enjoyable environment."
