DO YOUR PART TO PREVENT
SEWER BLOCKAGES

Maintaining reliable wastewater pipelines and facilities is everyone’s responsibility. There are simple actions we can all take to make sure that our wastewater system works.

Only Flush the 3Ps!
Only flush the 3P’s: Pee, Poop, and Toilet Paper. Those are the only materials that should be flushed down the toilet. Items like “Flushable” wipes, disposable diapers, and personal hygiene products do not belong in the sewer system.

Never Flush Wipes!
Used flushable wipes belong in the garbage. When flushed, flushable wipes can damage expensive equipment at pump stations and the wastewater treatment plant and only increase the chances of a sanitary sewer overflow.

Put FOG Where It Belongs!
Do not pour Fats, Oils, and Grease, aka FOG, down the drain! Grease collects and hardens inside the pipes and forms a solid plug that can lead to sewer problems. Dispose of grease and fats in the green organics cart instead.

Meet the super seniors who brought you the news!

Megan Baldwin

Megan has been a part of The Olympian for the past three years, as a staff writer, video editor, and editor-in-chief. Her favorite project that she's been involved in was the video interview with Gavin Newsom, where she was able to use her video editing skills. Over the past three years, she has been able to cover many events, and is most proud of her work with film and photography. Next year, she will continue her education at Cal Poly Humboldt, majoring in film.

Corinne Davidson

Corinne joined The Olympian in 2020 and has enjoyed working as a staff writer and editor-in-chief. Over the past two years she has enjoyed interviewing members of the community as well as reporting on interesting stories. Outside of journalism, Corinne is involved in choir and competitive dance. They are proud of everything they have done as part of The Olympian, and wishes the best for next year's staff. Next year, she will continue her education at San Diego State University, majoring in communications.

Leah Janaway

Leah has enjoyed being a part of The Olympian for the past two years as a staff writer and copy editor. Her favorite experiences were being able to interview Golden State Warriors player and CVHS alum Juan Toscano Anderson about his work with the Black Lives Matter movement in 2020, and chronicling her Ukrainian friend's story throughout the Russian invasion in early 2022. She has gained a lot of helpful experience in writing and conducting interviews that she will take with her into the future.

Andrew Hui

Andrew has appreciated the opportunity to be a staff writer and news editor at The Olympian over the past two years. It has better connected him with the school community. He enjoyed designing the front pages, working with fellow staff and meeting new people from all corners of campus. His favorite story was "Olympian survey reveals wild roads," where he discreetly tracked traffic violators. Outside of The Olympian, he was an officer for the Red Cross and worked part time. After high school, he plans to double major in Science and Technology Studies and Data Science at UC Davis.

Amanda Wong

Amanda has loved the two years she spent in journalism as a staff writer and opinion editor. She enjoyed sharing the different opinions CVHS students and journalists have had on various topics and is proud of the many articles and opinion pages she edited to inform others. Amanda has served as the president of CVHS's Interact Club and where she enjoys volunteering in the community. She has also been a class secretary for two years and loved planning events, dances, and homecoming week. Amanda will continue her education at UCLA next fall studying Human Biology and Society.

Ethan To

Ethan has been in Journalism for the past two years, as a staff writer during junior year and feature editor during senior year. He has greatly enjoyed the opportunity to be part of The Olympian. He especially enjoyed taking photos, designing pages, and writing the news story of how the elementary schools in Castro Valley received their names. Besides working within The Olympian, Ethan has also been involved in color guard, choir, and leadership. He hopes to put his newly found writing and communication skills to use in studying Business Information Management in the future.

Ali Nosseir

Ali has cherished the two years he's spent as part of The Olympian crew as a staff writer and sports editor. Being involved with various school sports himself, he has enjoyed reporting on, editing, and creating the sports pages on every issue this year. Ali has played varsity soccer all four years of high school, varsity track for two years, and junior varsity volleyball for one year. Besides sports, he's taken great pride in serving as the Financial Literacy Initiative club president where he can fulfill his passions. Ali will continue his education at UCLA next fall studying biochemistry.

Ada Chen

Ada has had an absolute grand time serving The Olympian, she started as a staff writer her junior year and was Arts and Entertainment editor her senior year. Her favorite story to write was "Do not say adieu to Wordle," which described the techniques of the popular game. Throughout her two years with The Olympian, she was given the opportunity to learn many new skills which will continue to help her in the future.

Delenn Block

Delenn has been a part of The Olympian staff for the past two years as a staff writer and photo editor. This experience has allowed her to demonstrate her photography, writing and communication skills and be closer to her community. She enjoyed getting to learn photoshop as a photo editor and writing news stories like "Masks required in all California schools." After high school she will attend UC Davis with a major in medical and molecular microbiology.

Felix Shum

Felix has enjoyed his two years as a part of The Olympian, as a staff writer and as business manager. He has enjoyed writing anime reviews, which had never been published prior, and has given his fair share of opinions on anime-related controversies. Among Felix's favorite articles is the first anniversary disaster for "Genshin Impact," and the review of the second season of "Kaguya-sama: Love is War." Outside of Journalism, he has stood proud running the Star Wars & Marvel Club, and the newly revived Anime Club. Felix will attend UC Riverside next fall, majoring in computer science.

Athena Sy Kuzuhara

Athena joined The Olympian this year as a staff writer. She has most notably drawn Shang-Chi and the Legend of the Ten Rings and Spider-Man: No Way Home graphics for entertainment articles, as well as an emotional scene for the Ukraine editorial. She has also written opinion articles exploring her identity and beliefs. Through this amazing experience, she was able to improve her writing skills and explore her limits as an artist. After graduating, Athena hopes to pursue a degree in computer science specializing in artificial intelligence.

Ethan Hudson

This has been Ethan's first year working on The Olympian as a staff writer. They enjoyed experiencing a completely different perspective on the noteworthy events going on around Castro Valley High School. They enjoyed writing opinionated stories and giving a spotlight to incredible student projects, especially through photography.

Jessica Truong

Jessica Truong has only been a part of The Olympian for her senior year, but she has appreciated her time here. She enjoyed writing various movie reviews and updates about the mask mandate at CVHS. Throughout her years of high school Jessica has participated in an assortment of activities besides journalism such as choir and piano. She is grateful to have participated in The Olympian and will continue her education after graduation at UC Irvine studying Biological Sciences.
